

www.somethingbetter.in, But why us?

1. Something better is free platform for independent writers where he/she can publish any form of writing as they wish. They would be no restrictions in the content unless otherwise overseen as a contamination to systems.
2. Here one receives a worldwide view of ever increasing 35,000+ viewers each and every day. It's only an aspiration destined to increase gradually over time.
3. It offers a new seat for growing authors. Anyone who loves writing and has written a book can access our portal for the publishing there e-book and paperback formats. For e-books there would be a royalty worth 100%.
4. Something Better spirits you to grow more as one meets with new writers, authors, blog-editors, you-tubers, content and video makers, film-feeders, journalists and many more. It is one of the best platforms destined for community building and blending of cultural and co-socio activities.
5. Content writers will have a free chatting area with the other members of our website. They can converse among themselves and write over joint topics which they think might better to be.
6. Last but not the least; mentions are to be done to our founders who dreamed of creating a workspace completely free of cost, and growth. It would be one of best area of talent productions apart from news biasness, unworthy videos and contents, unprofessional penning, rusting of creativity and dullness of aspirations. It's after all about Something Better!
